

Nomination Form for the 2021 Ralph & Mae Barichello Leadership Award

Is there someone in your BC community who deserves to be recognized for their outstanding contributions to 4-H and the larger community? Nominations are now being accepted for the Ralph and Mae Barichello Leadership Award. The Barichellos were leaders in the agricultural community for over 50 years. They were lifelong supporters of 4-H and believed deeply in the value of volunteering their time and talents in the broader community. This award seeks to honour their memory by recognizing those who have gone above and beyond in their service to the community as volunteers and leaders.

The award winner will be announced on October 16 at the 4-H BC Leadership Symposium. The recipient will receive a trophy as well as a complimentary attendance to the 2021 4-H BC Leadership Symposium held in Vernon, BC.

Each application will need a clear outline of how the nominee has volunteered their time and efforts in the 4-H and/or agricultural community and how this has benefitted others.

Nominations are open to individuals who have made a significant contribution to the agriculture and/or 4-H communities. This leadership award is not only for present and past 4-H leaders, but also others who have gone above and beyond in their service as community volunteers and leaders. Nominations require endorsement from two people:
